

Impact

By the end of this unit children will...

'Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.' 1 Corinthians 10:31

...children will develop an understanding of where food comes from.

They will be able to sort food into different groups. The children will begin to learn about the importance of looking after our world so that it can provide food for us.

Intent

It is our vision that our children will become advocates for social justice, fighters for sustainability, seekers of equality and leaders seeking to become "builders of a new humanity" (Pope Francis).

Through the delivery of this unit of work the children will gain a better understanding of where food comes from and be able to sort food into health and unhealthy.

Building the Kingdom

Big Question:

Who gives us food?

Further questions to explore

Should we share equally?

What Bible stories teach us about sharing with others?

How do Christians share a meal with Jesus today?

Catholic Social Teaching

Life and dignity of the human person: We are all called as Children of God to take care for ourselves and look after our bodies.

The Gospel calls us to love one another. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we act to serve one another, to help each other to grow and to support each other in their right to life.

It is important that we help each other to achieve their fundamental rights to food and water and all that is necessary to life.

Who gives us food? YR: Knowledge and Skills

Early Learning Goals

English

Word Reading

- Begin to work on set 2 speed sounds
- Read Word Time words 1.1/1.7
- Read green words using Fred Talk.
- Read aloud simple sentences and books that are consistent with their phonic knowledge, including some common exception words

Comprehension

Children will be exploring “The little Red Hen” as a hook to their learning, as they explore where food comes from and how it is grown. Demonstrate understanding of what has been read to them by retelling stories and narratives using their own words and recently introduced vocabulary.

Writing

Using “The Little Red Hen” as a basis, children will create story maps, write lists and a set of instructions. Spell words by identifying sounds in them and representing the sounds with a letter or letters. • Write simple phrases and sentences that can be read by others.

Understanding the World

The Natural World:

- Explore the natural world around them, making observations and drawing pictures of animals – children will be creating observational drawings of the chickens, noting their similarities and differences.
- Know some similarities and differences between the natural world around them and contrasting environments, drawing on their experiences as children create a vegetable garden within their outside area.

People, Culture and Communities:

- Recognise some environments that are different to the one in which they live when they read Handa’s Surprise. Considering the images and how this compares to life in Erdington.
- Recognise some similarities and differences between life in this country and life in other countries.

Numeracy

Number

- Have a deep understanding of number to 10, including the composition of each number.
- Subitise (recognise quantities without counting) up to 5.

Numerical Pattern

- Verbally count beyond 20, recognising the pattern of the counting system.
- Compare quantities up to 10 in different contexts, recognising when one quantity is greater than, less than or the same as the other quantity.

Communication and Language

Listening. Attention and Understanding

- Listen attentively and respond to what they hear and see during Handa Surprise with relevant questions, comments and actions when being read to and during whole class discussions and small group interactions.
- Make comments about what they have heard and ask questions to clarify their understanding. Hold conversation when engaged in back-and-forth exchanges with their teacher and peers.

Speaking

- Participate in small group, class and one-to-one discussions, offering their own ideas, using recently introduced vocabulary.
- Offer explanations for why things might happen. Children will use prediction skills to consider what the Little Red Hen will do next in the story.
