

Impact

By the end of this unit children will...

Children in Year Two will develop a chronological understanding of significant individuals of the past, who they are and why they acted in the way they did. As they reflect upon what it is that makes someone a hero or heroine, they will come to understand that each person is given a mission by God, as St John Henry Newman said, "I am created to do something for which no one else is created; I have a place in God's counsels, in God's world, which no one else has". Each one of us is called to do good and to make this world a better place.

Through their historical enquiry Year Two will explore different individuals of the past and develop an understanding of why people acted in the way they did, how their actions have made the world a place "for the honour of God" (Vatican II). They will learn that through their actions, these significant individuals showed their responsibility in ensuring that all people live a life of dignity.

Intent

... it is our vision that our children will become advocates for social justice, fighters for sustainability, seekers of equality and leaders seeking to become "builders of a new humanity" (Pope Francis).

Through the delivery of this unit of work, children will develop an understanding of how significant individuals of the past were active members of society who exercised the rights and responsibilities and ensured that the rights of others in society were met.

Catholic Social Teaching

Right and responsibilities – Each person has the right to dignity of life. With this, we are all responsible to ensure that the right to dignity of life is met for each individual. "A well-ordered human society requires that people recognize and observe their mutual rights and duties. It also demands that each contribute generously to the establishment of a civic order in which rights and duties are more sincerely and effectively acknowledged and fulfilled." (Saint John XXIII, Pacem in Terris, 31)
